

Art Department.

HARPER & BROTHERS,

FRANKLIN SQUARE, NEW YORK.

November 6, 1891.

Oliver C. Osbyskell, Esq.,
Supt Phila. Mint.

Dear Sir,

We shall be obliged for the opportunity of publishing in our Weekly correct representations of the new coins, and will appreciate the favor of your assistance with this view.

Will you put us in the way of securing designs, or better the coins themselves, at the earliest possible moment, so that we may not be anticipated by publication elsewhere?

Please inform us.

Truly yours
Fred G. Schell
supt art dept.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 173

Harper & Brothers,
Art Department
Franklin Square, New York
November 6, 1891

Oliver C. Bosbyshell, Esq.
Supt. Phila. Mint:

Dear Sir,

We shall be obliged for the opportunity of publishing in our Weekly correct representations of the new coins, and will appreciate the favor of your assistance with this view.

Will you put us in the way of securing designs, or better the coins themselves, at the earliest possible moment, so that we may not be anticipated by publication elsewhere?

Please inform us.
Truly yours
Will B. Schell
Supt. Art Dept.